II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

☒ Federal question

☐ Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

List the specific federal statutes, federal treaties, and/or provisions of the United States Constitution that are at issue in this case.

This action is brought for discrimination in employment pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as codified, 42 U.S.C. § § 12112-12117 (amended by the Civil Rights Act of 1991, Pub.L.No. 102-166).

Jurisdiction is specifically conferred upon this United States District Court by the aforementioned statutes, as well as 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343. Jurisdiction may also be appropriate under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983 and 1985(3), as amended by the Civil Rights Act of 1991, Pub.L.No. 102-166, and any related claims under New York law.

B. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is Diversity of Citizenship1. The Plaintiff(s)*a. If the plaintiff is an individual

The plaintiff, (name) Linda M. Parady, is a citizen of the State of (name) New York.

b. If the plaintiff is a corporation

The plaintiff, (name) _____, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____.

(If more than one plaintiff is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional plaintiff.)

2. The Defendant(s)

a. If the defendant is an individual

The defendant, (name) _____, is a citizen of the State of (name) _____. Or is a citizen of (foreign nation) _____.

b. If the defendant is a corporation

The defendant, (name) M&T Bank, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) New York, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) New York.
Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____,
and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

Due to Defendant's discrimination against Plaintiff for her disability Plaintiff suffered months of adverse workplace consequences, retaliation and harassment. Ultimately Plaintiff was terminated from her job by Defendant. Plaintiff is seeking monetary damages for loss wages, front pay for future wages, insurance premiums, and other damages that exceed $75,000.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

Plaintiff's statement:

I was hired by the above-named Defendant as an Administrative Vice President on March 19, 2018 and relocated to Rochester, NY for this position. My most recent position title was Senior Vice President and my direct supervisor was Scott Weissmann, Group Manager Executive Vice President. In May 2023 I used medical leave as a form of reasonable accommodation for a medical disability due to a breast cancer diagnosis, which required me to take short term disability for recuperation from mastectomy and breast reconstruction surgeries, which Defendant was given prior written notice of and was approved. I returned to full time employment on August 2, 2023, resumed all of my duties and responsibilities, and led the Defendant's CEF Documentation Department that I managed to close out the year of 2023 with a record amount of volume produced, which resulted in surpassing the group's annual target budget by 3%.

During my 6+ year tenure I have consistently led the CEF Documentation Department in accordance with the Defendant's values and leadership competencies and my year-end performance ratings were always "Satisfactory" or above. However, since my return from short-term disability unfair and unwarranted comments were made to my permanent personnel file, my 2023 annual performance rating was downgraded to "Achieving-Progressing", which negatively impacted my 2023 overall compensation. I was discriminated, retaliated against and experienced adverse workplace consequences for taking medical leave to recuperate from my surgeries by my boss, Scott Weissmann. In addition, I was subjected to unwarranted disciplinary actions by Scott Weissmann, who implemented an Action Plan against me on January 11, 2024. He continued his harassment during our one-on-one weekly performance conference calls and wrote unsubstantiated statements in my permanent personnel file.

On March 17, 2024 I filed a formal complaint with the EEOC for a charge of discrimination and on March 18, 2024 I notified Defendant's Human Resources Dept. (Lynn Bommle and Tara Berlingo Human Resources Representatives), Defendant's Employee Relations Department (Tom Hurwitz, Executive Vice President) and my boss, (Scott Weissmann, Executive Vice President) of these retaliatory and harrassing discriminatory actions. On April 25 and 26th, 2024, I took 1-1/2 days PTO time, which was preapproved by Scott Weissmann. On April 29, 2024 I called Scott Weissmann to inform him that during this time I had a surgical procedure to remove a lump in my neck, which required an unexpected two-night hospitalization stay. In order to return to work, I was required to obtain medical authorization from my doctor later that day and I advised Scott Weissmann that the pathologist's report on the mass that was removed from my neck would take 5-7 days to be completed. I was authorized to return to work on Tuesday, April 30, 2024. One week later I was terminated from my job on Monday, May 6, 2024, by Scott Weissmann and Tom Hurwitz. This adverse employment action has damaged my career and has been detrimental to my earning potential.

(EEOC Complaint No. 525-2024-01190, EEOC Notice to Sue Letter dated January 6, 2025 attached.)

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

Plaintiff is seeking monetary damages and other relief as follows:

1. Lost wages, front pay for loss of future earnings, and other compensation, including but not limited to, potential bonuses, 401K match, lost benefits, which Plaintiff had to pay out-of-pocket for from 6/1/24-12/31/24 (medical, dental, vision insurances).
2. Emotional distress, mental anguish pain and suffering: All of which Plaintiff suffered after she returned from short-term disability on 8/2/2023 through 5/6/2024.
3. Loss of professional reputation: The negative comments in her permanent personnel file, as well as termination from her job prohibited Plaintiff from posting for another position within M&T Bank and negatively affected her life, livelihood, earning potential and reputation that she spent years of her career developing in a specialized industry.
4. Any additional compensatory damages or punitive damages that Plaintiff may be entitled to.

V. Certification and Closing

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, by signing below, I certify to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief that this complaint: (1) is not being presented for an improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation; (2) is supported by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law; (3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and (4) the complaint otherwise complies with the requirements of Rule 11.

A. For Parties Without an Attorney

I agree to provide the Clerk's Office with any changes to my address where case-related papers may be served. I understand that my failure to keep a current address on file with the Clerk's Office may result in the dismissal of my case.

DETERMINATION AND NOTICE OF RIGHTS

(This Notice replaces EEOC FORMS 161, 161-A & 161-B)

Issued On: 01/06/2025

To: Ms. Linda M. Parady

Charge No: 525-2024-01190

EEOC Representative and email: JESUS SANTIAGO

DETERMINATION OF CHARGE

The EEOC issues the following determination: The EEOC will not proceed further with its investigation and makes no determination about whether further investigation would establish violations of the statute. This does not mean the claims have no merit. This determination does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. The EEOC makes no finding as to the merits of any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHT TO SUE

This is official notice from the EEOC of the dismissal of your charge and of your right to sue. If you choose to file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) on this charge under federal law in federal or state court, your lawsuit must be filed WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this notice. Receipt generally occurs on the date that you (or your representative) view this document. You should keep a record of the date you received this notice. Your right to sue based on this charge will be lost if you do not file a lawsuit in court within 90 days. (The time limit for filing a lawsuit based on a claim under state law may be different.)

If you file suit, based on this charge, please send a copy of your court complaint to this office.

INFORMATION RELATED TO FILING SUIT UNDER THE LAWS ENFORCED BY THE EEOC

(This information relates to filing suit in Federal or State court under Federal law. If you also plan to sue claiming violations of State law, please be aware that time limits may be shorter and other provisions of State law may be different than those described below.)

IMPORTANT TIME LIMITS – 90 DAYS TO FILE A LAWSUIT

If you choose to file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) named in the charge of discrimination, you must file a complaint in court within 90 days of the date you receive this Notice. Receipt generally means the date when you (or your representative) opened this email or mail. You should keep a record of the date you received this notice. Once this 90-day period has passed, your right to sue based on the charge referred to in this Notice will be lost. If you intend to consult an attorney, you should do so promptly. Give your attorney a copy of this Notice, and the record of your receiving it (email or envelope).

If your lawsuit includes a claim under the Equal Pay Act (EPA), you must file your complaint in court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the date you did not receive equal pay. This time limit for filing an EPA lawsuit is separate from the 90-day filing period under Title VII, the ADA, GINA, the ADEA, or the PWFA referred to above. Therefore, if you also plan to sue under Title VII, the ADA, GINA, the ADEA or the PWFA, in addition to suing on the EPA claim, your lawsuit must be filed within 90 days of this Notice and within the 2- or 3-year EPA period.

Your lawsuit may be filed in U.S. District Court or a State court of competent jurisdiction. Whether you file in Federal or State court is a matter for you to decide after talking to your attorney. You must file a "complaint" that contains a short statement of the facts of your case which shows that you are entitled to relief. Filing this Notice is not enough. For more information about filing a lawsuit, go to <https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/lawsuit.cfm>.

ATTORNEY REPRESENTATION

For information about locating an attorney to represent you, go to:

 <https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/lawsuit.cfm>.

In very limited circumstances, a U.S. District Court may appoint an attorney to represent individuals who demonstrate that they are financially unable to afford an attorney.

HOW TO REQUEST YOUR CHARGE FILE AND 90-DAY TIME LIMIT FOR REQUESTS

There are two ways to request a charge file: 1) a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request or 2) a "Section 83" request. You may request your charge file under either or both procedures. EEOC can generally respond to Section 83 requests more promptly than FOIA requests.

Since a lawsuit must be filed within 90 days of this notice, please submit your FOIA and/or Section 83 request for the charge file promptly to allow sufficient time for EEOC to respond and for your review.

To make a FOIA request for your charge file, submit your request online at <https://eeoc.arkcase.com/foia/portal/login> (this is the preferred method). You may also submit a FOIA request for your charge file by U.S. Mail by submitting a signed, written request identifying your request as a "FOIA Request" for Charge Number 525-2024-01190 to the

Enclosure with EEOC Notice of Closure and Rights (01/22)

You may request the charge file up to 90 days after receiving this Notice of Right to Sue. After the 90 days have passed, you may request the charge file only if you have filed a lawsuit in court and provide a copy of the court complaint to EEOC.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS UNDER THE ADA AMENDMENTS ACT OF 2008 (ADAAA)

The ADA was amended, effective January 1, 2009, to broaden the definitions of disability to make it easier for individuals to be covered under the ADA/ADAAA. A disability is still defined as (1) a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities (actual disability); (2) a record of a substantially limiting impairment; or (3) being regarded as having a disability. However, these terms are redefined, and it is easier to be covered under the new law.

If you plan to retain an attorney to assist you with your ADA claim, we recommend that you share this information with your attorney and suggest that he or she consult the amended regulations and appendix, and other ADA related publications, available at: http://www.eeoc.gov/laws/types/disability_regulations.cfm.

“Actual” disability or a “record of” a disability

If you are pursuing a failure to accommodate claim you must meet the standards for either “actual” or “record of” a disability:

- ✓ The limitations from the impairment no longer must be severe or significant for the impairment to be considered substantially limiting.
- ✓ In addition to activities such as performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, thinking, concentrating, reading, bending, and communicating (more examples at 29 C.F.R. § 1630.2(i)), “major life activities” now include the operation of major bodily functions, such as: functions of the immune system, special sense organs and skin; normal cell growth; and digestive, genitourinary, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, cardiovascular, endocrine, hemic, lymphatic, musculoskeletal, and reproductive functions; or the operation of an individual organ within a body system.
- ✓ Only one major life activity need be substantially limited.
- ✓ Except for ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses, the beneficial effects of “mitigating measures” (e.g., hearing aid, prosthesis, medication, therapy, behavioral modifications) are not considered in determining if the impairment substantially limits a major life activity.

Enclosure with EEOC Notice of Closure and Rights (01/22)

- ✓ An impairment that is “episodic” (e.g., epilepsy, depression, multiple sclerosis) or “in remission” (e.g., cancer) is a disability if it would be substantially limiting when active.
- ✓ An impairment may be substantially limiting even though it lasts or is expected to last fewer than six months.

“Regarded as” coverage

An individual can meet the definition of disability if an employment action was taken because of an actual or perceived impairment (e.g., refusal to hire, demotion, placement on involuntary leave, termination, exclusion for failure to meet a qualification standard, harassment, or denial of any other term, condition, or privilege of employment).

- ✓ “Regarded as” coverage under the ADAAA no longer requires that an impairment be substantially limiting, or that the employer perceives the impairment to be substantially limiting.
- ✓ The employer has a defense against a “regarded as” claim only when the impairment at issue is objectively both transitory (lasting or expected to last six months or less) and minor.
- ✓ A person is not able to bring a failure to accommodate claim if the individual is covered only under the “regarded as” definition of “disability”.

Note: Although the amended ADA states that the definition of disability “shall be construed broadly” and “should not demand extensive analysis,” some courts require specificity in the complaint explaining how an impairment substantially limits a major life activity or what facts indicate the challenged employment action was because of the impairment. Beyond the initial pleading stage, some courts will require specific evidence to establish disability. For more information, consult the amended regulations and appendix, as well as explanatory publications, available at http://www.eeoc.gov/laws/types/disability_regulations.cfm.
